Hello, Neighbor!

We hope you join the movement. You can learn more about how to celebrate at hopefullneighborhood.org.

Sharing something you love with your neighborhood with greetings:

- Setting in front of your house and greeting those you see.

- Using sidewalk chalk to decorate your street.

- Snow angels on your driveway.

- Snowmen and snowwomen.

Join people across the United States who are celebrating with helplo. Consider celebrating by:

- Setting in front of your house and greeting those who are invited to celebrate with you.
Hello, Neighbor!

Can learn more about how to celebrate at

We hope you join the movement.

Neighbors—chocolate, cookies, flowers, etc.
Sharing something you love with your neighborhood with greeting.
Using sidewalk chalk to decorate your those you see.

Sitting in front of your house and greeting.

Reading with hello. Consider celebrating by:
Join people across the United States who are 28 and you’re invited to celebrate with us.

National Good Neighbor Day is on September